Kids Invited to Halloween Party

Rodman Public Library's popular children's Halloween party will be held Saturday, October 15 at the Main Library.

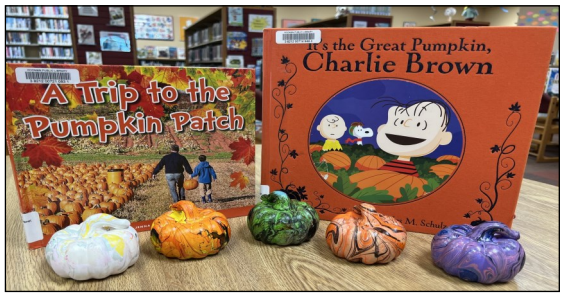
Open to families with children of all ages, the festivities will include a craft, treats, games and more.

Families can stop by the Children's Department anytime between 2:00 and 3:00 p.m. to take part in the fun. Costumes are not mandatory, but they are encouraged.

No Registration is necessary.

For more information, call the Children's Department at 330-821-2665, ext. 223.

An Irish folktale titled Stingy Jack was the inspiration for jack-o'-lanterns.



Hot Pots Storytime is Back at RPL Branch

Hot Pots Storytime at Rodman Branch Library is back.

Held at both the Branch Library and at Hot Pots, two sessions are planned, including one on Wednesday, Sept. 28 from 6: 30 to 7:30 p.m, and another on Saturday, Oct. 1 from 11 a.m. to noon.

Participants should meet at the Rodman Library Branch for a pumpkin story then walk to Hot Pots to paint their own groovy marbelized pumpkin. Youngsters will choose their pumpkin color then select colors for a spectacular swirl color overcoat.

Pumpkins will go home the same day.

The event is open to children ages 3-12 and the cost is $10 per child.

Patrons must register with Hot Pots by calling 330-823-3333 or online at hotpotspottery.com.

Kids Book Club

Meets every third Wednesday of the month at 4:15 p.m. at the Main Library.
